Presbyter's Message

Most of us have a humble beginning when we look at our life or reflect on God's work in our life we may all experience his love and grace in our lives.

We were nobody but God has made us into somebody.

Whom do we owe this life to whom do we owe this success to. It's time for all of us to reflect and ponder on our life.

2 Samuel 22 and 23:1-7 we read the inspired reflection of King David at the end of his reign in Israel's King.

This passage gives us the appraisal of the hand of God in King David's life – from the outset of his tenure as monarch to its closing days they provide a good framework for us to look back on as we consider our journey with Jesus.

Focusing on 2 Samuel 23:1-7 we should ask ourselves

- Who was I before God chose me?
David was the son of Jesse. In fact he was the youngest son and probably a neglected one. Paul reminds us in 1 Corinthians 1:26-29 that we also have a humble beginning.
- What did I become as a result of his grace?
From David's life we see that God used the no body and made him into somebody. He raised the shepherd boy from obscurity to become the Lords anointed and the King of Israel.
- How has my life pointed others to Christ?
God chose David as King to show the world that it means to live under his rule. David's reign ultimately pointed to the perfect and righteous King.
Just as David lived it out, let's remind ourselves that we're in a covenant relationship with God. All that we all or ever hope to be we owe it all to him.
Let us therefore to be thankful to Almighty God and give him all the glory.

TO GOD BE THE GLORY
