Presbyter's Message

Great is thy faithfulness this was the theme for our 175 years of celebration and indeed what a great blessing to all of us of being a part of this celebration. Our church has witnessed lot of historical events but this celebration was unique because we as a family got together and celebrated it. Last year on 3rd of April we started with the celebration and with the help of the Parishioners we were able to organize so many programme. I along with Rev Subha would like to thank all the Parishioners who helped us in organizing this great historical event in the life of Christ Church Cathedral.

We would also like to thank all the Donors and well wishers who helped us financially and who were instrumental in making the celebration grand.

We will never forget these programme for a long time but we should not stop here so many people said that the Christ Church Cathedral family should extend the love and generosity to the wider peripheral. Let us all remember that this is our Church no matter what happens no matter who is the Pastor, Secretary, Treasurer we need to move ahead and we need to be together.

During these 5 days of celebration I have seen so many Parishioners coming forward and helping each other. Parishioners rejoicing together, praying together and celebrating together and I think this is what Church is all about. Let us build a long lasting strong bond of love, let us build belongingness among ourselves, let us share our joys and happiness with others, let us build a Church where people may see our good work and glorify the Father in Heaven.

May God bless our Church, may we always exhibit the love of Christ in us and may God be the centre of our Church.
